

100 Years of Liberal Arts at DLSU Talks, Exhibits November 5-10, 2018 With HIGHLIGHT on NOV. 9, 2018

Date	Time	Department	Activity Brief	Venue
	MORNING
Nov 9	09:00am - 1200 12:00 – 0130pm	Filipino	Manunggul Jar Project: Brown Bag of Community Engagement. This is year three of this highly acclaimed CE project of the Filipino Department. It has inspired more participation both from faculty and students as it has elevated CE activities beyond our national borders to reach out to Filipinos abroad who have maintained the desire to learn local culture and our national language and to keep that Filipino identity intact. This event also acts as an evaluation of all activities conducted in the past 3 years.	Y409 event Y302 meals
Nov. 9	9:15-12:30 PM	Behavioral Science	Talk highlighting the social engagement activity of the department with the Alangan Mangyan Community in Baco, Oriental Mindoro. This is an ongoing two-year engagement funded by your office. The proposed activity will invite a number of Alangan Mangyan leaders to DLSU on November 9 to talk about their culture and provide feedback and testimonies of the partnership of the department and the community.	Y408
Nov. 9	9:15 - 10:45am	Political Science	Ms. Gina Lomotan of the Political Science Department will talk on Social Entrepreneurship with CLA students and highlight the social engagement activities of the department. With photo exhibit.	Y507-508-509
Nov. 9	11:00 - 12:30pm	Philosophy	The Pink Bag Seminar on Feminism intends to highlight the inequalities in political representation and economic opportunities as well as aggression and violence in present times. Filipino women may seem to be some of the more empowered compared to our neighbors but there are still a number of hurdles to cross especially during these challenging times in our society.	Y507-508-509

Date	Time	Department	Activity Brief	Venue
	AFTERNOON TO EVENING
Nov. 9	12:45 - 2:15pm 02:15 - 5:00pm	History	The History Department will have a back-to-back lecture featuring one of the more senior members of the faculty, Mr. Jose Victor Jimenez, on the 100 years of arts and humanities in DLSU, and a tete-a-tete with renowned actor, Mr. Epi Quizon, on historical films in Philippine cinema and how these are mainstreamed to foster nationalism and strengthen historical consciousness especially for the younger generation.	Y507-Y508-509
Nov. 9	2:30-5:00pm	Literature/ BNSCWC	The Literature Department partners with BNSCWC in featuring two prominent DLSU alumni in the arts – Jose Javier Reyes for film and Ricardo de Ungria for media. Both will discuss their career and crafts as artists among our Literature, Communication and Filipino students. The event is also a celebration of the contribution of DLSU to literature, film and media in the Philippines.	PJL Conference Room, 14F Library
Nov. 9	4:00 - 6:00pm	International Studies	The ISD will host Amb. Jose Cuisia in discussing Global Education with a Mission. This also coincides with the ISD's 25 th anniversary. It will highlight the scholarship provided by the speaker to allow more students into the MA program of the department to help mitigate the gap in graduate education.	Y407-Y408-409
Nov. 9	4:00 - 6:00pm	Philosophy	Revival of Pulong Isip ("meeting of minds") – an activity that will allow a philosophical dialogue among faculty (including retired ones) and students on pressing political, pedagogical and societal issues. This also becomes a venue for developing new research in the field within and among faculty and students.	Y302 Board Room
Nov. 9	0600-1000	CLA Alumni	Socials night (alumni, administrators, faculty, staff and students)	The Verdure 5/F HSSH

Earlier Events / Exhibits
Nov. 6	02:40 - 04:50pm	Communication	Talk by Dr. Stephanie Edgerly: "Getting Real about Fake News." The speaker is a professor at the Medill School of Journalism of Northwestern University. She is being sponsored by the US Embassy in Manila in coordination with the Communication Department.	Y408
Nov. 5-10		Communication	Images of Batanes Photo Exhibit	Learning Commons
Nov. 5-10		Filipino	Manunggul Jar Project Exhibit	Learning Commons
Nov. 5-10		History	History Exhibit	Learning Commons
Nov. 5-10		International Studies	Booth/Exhibit (in coordination with student organizations) celebrating 25 Years of the Department.	Learning Commons
Nov. 9		Philosophy	PUSA Booth – booth and exhibits will be set up by the PUSA organization, and will invite prominent animal advocates to DLSU during the weeklong celebration of the Lasallian Mission Week.	SJ Walk
Nov. 5-10		Philosophy	Exhibit: Lasallian Writers	Learning Commons
Nov. 5-10		Psychology	Exhibit on their Pampanga Experience with the mental health needs of drug surrenders.	Learning Commons
Nov. 5-10		Psychology	Video of their faith formation and other activities	Learning Commons
Nov. 8-9		TRED	TRED will host a two-day Vocation Fair in which missionaries will be invited and a booth shall be set up in campus. This will allow students who may have the "calling" for the vocation to interact with priests and nuns of different congregations.	HSSH Lobby
Nov. 5-10		JRIG	Exhibit of their activities in the previous year and Book Exhibit on Jesse Robredo	Learning Commons
Nov. 9		Graduate Student Council	Interfaith Dialogue. This is an annual event of the GSC. The forum is one of the better places to openly discuss religion and its intricacies or the total lack of it. It is a good avenue to raise questions about spirituality among believers and non-believers as we must all co-exist in our DLSU community.	Y407-Y408-409